DEAR BROTHERS & SISTERS IN ISLAM,

Sponsoring orphans is very important in Islam. The Messenger of Allah (pbuh) said: “I and the one who sponsors an orphan will be like this in Paradise,” and he held up his forefinger and middle finger. Narrated by al-Bukhaari (6005) and Muslim (2983).

Ibn Battaal said: It is the duty of every believer who hears this hadeeth to strive to follow it, so that he will be in Paradise with the Prophet (pbuh) and the company of Prophets and Messengers (peace be upon them all), for there is no status in the Hereafter that is better before Allah than the company of the Prophets.
Sharh Ibn Battaal (17/260).

The one who sponsors an orphan is the one who brings him up and takes care of his affairs with regard to maintenance, clothing, discipline, education and so on. It is not only the one who spends on him; rather spending on him is just one aspect of sponsoring him.

Al-Haafiz said in al-Fath: Sponsoring an orphan means looking after his affairs and taking care of his interests.

Ibn ‘Allaan said: That means maintenance, clothing, education, discipline and so on. It says in Sharh Muslim: This virtue is attained by the one who sponsors the orphan from his own wealth or from the orphan’s wealth, acting as a legitimate guardian. Daleel al-Faaliheen (2/366)

Shaykh Ibn ‘Uthaymeen said: Sponsoring an orphan means taking care of his religious and worldly affairs, giving him an upbringing, guidance, education and so on, so that he grows up following the teachings of Islam and taking care of his worldly affairs by giving him food, drink and accommodation. Sharh Riyadh al-Saaliheen, p. 311

During Ramadaan, a Muslim has numerous opportunities for obtaining mercy, forgiveness and salvation from the Hellfire, not only by fasting but through other good deeds and charities.

And Allah (SWT) has commanded all Muslims to be concerned with the rights of orphans, and has made kindness to them a means of obtaining Paradise and of drawing closer to their Lord. Allah (SWT) says in the Holy Qur’an: "And they ask you about orphans. Say, "Improvement for them is best. And if you mix your affairs with theirs – they are your brothers." (2: 220)

May Allah (SWT) accept your fast and all your good deeds for His cause! We ask Him to bless your Zakah, Fitrah, Lilaah and Sadaqah donations and to reward you.

NOTE: The orphanage is registered by the department of social development and social services, but does not receive any funding from these departments or the government.

Message: The management and staff of Al-Noor orphanage wish all our Muslim donors and volunteers well over the month of Ramadaan. Our staff, Muslim and non-Muslim, pray and hope that you may assist the orphanage during this month by donating any amount however small towards the care of orphans and disadvantaged children. The barakah in your donation, alhamdulillah is so great that it will last us till the next Ramadaan. Shukran for your contribution.
